

“From England, UK, DJ Paul Rees sees the world of music to be an international language. With a passion for dance music, Paul has held residencies playing to diverse crowds with a sole intention to create vibes and to mix music in a way that injects the right kind of energy into any event, on every corner of the globe”

Biography. DJ'ing from a young age Paul Rees's career has taken him from the UK , through Europe, into the Middle East and onto Asia. Playing at beach bars and night clubs along the sunset strip of Ibiza, commercial events and underground night clubs in England, showcasing his DJ'ing performances in the Middle East, and venturing into more chilled and deeper sounds at luxury 5 star venues such as 'W' retreat in the Maldives and rooftop bars/café's in Bahrain. Further sharing his passion to mix and showcase new music he has hosted various online radio shows (Citybeatradio.org), submitting DJ mixes for global air play (Sense.fm, BN4IA.com), creating podcasts, and producing his own music under his other alias 'Jordan' quickly gaining support from listeners and fellow DJ's. Proving himself to thrive at a range of events from chill out sunset bars to beach parties to pool parties and onto the underground club scene, always looking for new ways to push his performance to the next level. Playing to diverse crowds at 5 star venues and superclubs in Ibiza and the Middle East, supporting acts such as DJ Antoine, Edward Maya, Jay Sean and Jeremih. Proving himself at a high level with his passion continuing to grow in the art of mixing music. His DJ sets showcase his own bootlegs, remixes and edits built to work any crowd and stand out in his own light.
